From September 1, 2020 through March 31, 2021, or until fully exhausted, Scholarship Assistance is available to all essential workers in the community. Scholarships will be awarded on a sliding scale based on household income, once a quarter. Scholarships range from 10% (for household incomes over $95,000) up to full course cost (for household incomes below $30,000). Essential workers are individuals who reported for work during and throughout the New York State lockdown period and include workers at: hospitals, nursing homes and other health care entities; fire stations; U.S. Post Offices; delivery companies; grocery and convenience stores; restaurant that remained open for carry-out or delivery; and the like.

Please attach: 1) a copy of your work ID, and 2) your most current paystub or other proof of household income.

We recognize that there may be many factors beyond household income that may affect what you can pay for a course. If you have additional reasons to request consideration for a scholarship, please attach a brief letter of explanation.
