FLOWER CITY ARTS CENTER

EXPANDING THE FIELD
2022 - 2023 APPLICATION

HIGH SCHOOL ART STUDENTS:
DEVELOP YOUR SKILLS & COLLEGE PORTFOLIO IN A PROFESSIONAL ENVIRONMENT!

Expanding the Field is seeking rising freshmen, sophomores, & juniors of any African-American, Latinx, and/or Native American heritage, as well as any student who identifies as one of color to apply for free classes, mentorship, and facilities access at Flower City Arts Center. Expanding the Field supports access to visual arts resources, increases in healthy diversity of college-level visual arts programs, and future leaders in the professions of Ceramics, Printmaking, and Photography.

Accepted students meet every Friday from 3:30 pm - 6 pm for one-to-one mentoring support to ensure students achieve their goals, and participate in specialized workshops and/or group projects. Students are expected to take one FREE class or workshop per quarter during the 2022-2023 school year and in Summer 2023 to build up their portfolios. Students will also have access to guided open studio time after-school on any day that fits their schedule to work independently or as a group. Transportation subsidy available, based on need. Apply early, space is limited.
